

Information to bring with you to your first meeting with a Personal Injury Attorney

You may not have every item on the list, but put together as much information as you can before your meeting

Medical information

- Documents about recent diagnoses and treatments
- Health related bills
- Documents about future treatments needed
- Ambulance service used
- Information of hospital (s)
- Admission and release dates
- List of current prescription medication

Insurance information

- Health insurance coverage paperwork
- Auto insurance coverage

Copy of official reports

- Police reports
- Other reports

Work and income information

- Dates of missed work
- W2 and other forms

Photos or videos

- Accident details (in case of vehicle accidents include photos of all vehicles involved)
- Injuries
- Landscape and road conditions

Common questions you should be able to answer:

What specific injuries are you dealing with? How are you feeling now? Are you experiencing any pain?

Have you talked to someone about the accident? What did you tell them?

What insurance coverage do you have?

Did you speak to your insurance company about the accident? What did you say?

Have you seen a doctor? What is/was the prognosis?

How has the accident affected you, your family and your routine?
